Belfast Functional Analysis Day 2002Queen's University Belfast*16 November 2002

The fifth annual Belfast Functional Analysis Day (BFAD2002) will be held on Saturday, 16 November 2002 in the Department of Pure Mathematics of Queen's University Belfast. It is organised by Martin Mathieu and Anthony W. Wickstead as in the previous years.

The main speaker will be

Professor Isabelle Chalendar, Lyon, France who will deliver two one-hour lectures on

"The operator-valued Poisson kernel and its applications".

There also will be about seven contributed 30-min talks by the participants.

The meeting is supported by the London Mathematical Society, in particular to support graduate students in their attendance. Therefore we strongly encourage research students who may be interested in participating to contact the organisers as early as possible. The meeting is also part of the EC Network "Analysis and Operators" and thus members of the network may be eligible for support for their attendance (please check with your local co-ordinator).
